Frederick Perrin ✓

Funeral services for Frederick Perrin, 82, who passed away last Wednesday, Feb. 6, 1952, at his home in Aberdeen, were held Saturday at the Paetznick Funeral Home at 2:00 p. m., with the Rev. F. G. MacKenzie officiating. Burial was in the Groton cemetery. Misses Margaret and Myrtle Blader sang several selections, accompanied by Mrs. MacKenzie. Pall bearers were: Otto Schinkel, Wm. Wage, Oscar Peterson, Raymond Breitzkreutz, Alvin Hoops and Marvin Harry.

Mr. Perrin was born Feb. 7, 1869, in London, England. He came to South Dakota in 1882 and located near Ferney to farm. He was united in marriage to Fanny Smith on May 19, 1910. They resided on a farm at Ferney until 1930, when they made their home at Hartford Beach. They moved to Aberdeen last fall for the winter months. The deceased had not been in good health for the past four year, but was seriously ill for only two weeks.

Mr. Perrin was a kind and thoughtful husband and neighbor. His friendly and courteous ways gained for him a large circle of friends who extend sympathy to the relatives in the loss of their loved one.

Survivors include his wife; a brother, Walter Perrin of Conde; two sisters, Mrs. Ann Davis of Huron and Mrs. Eliza Mathieu of Elliott, N. D., and several nieces and nephews.
